

ISKCON Leicester

2015 Smartphone calendar

Android user guide:

Step 1: Go to google calendar on your PC and select other calendars

The screenshot shows the Google Calendar interface for January 5-11, 2015. On the left sidebar, under 'Other calendars', the 'Add a friend's calendar' option is highlighted with a red arrow. Other options include 'Holidays in United Ki...'. The main calendar grid is empty.

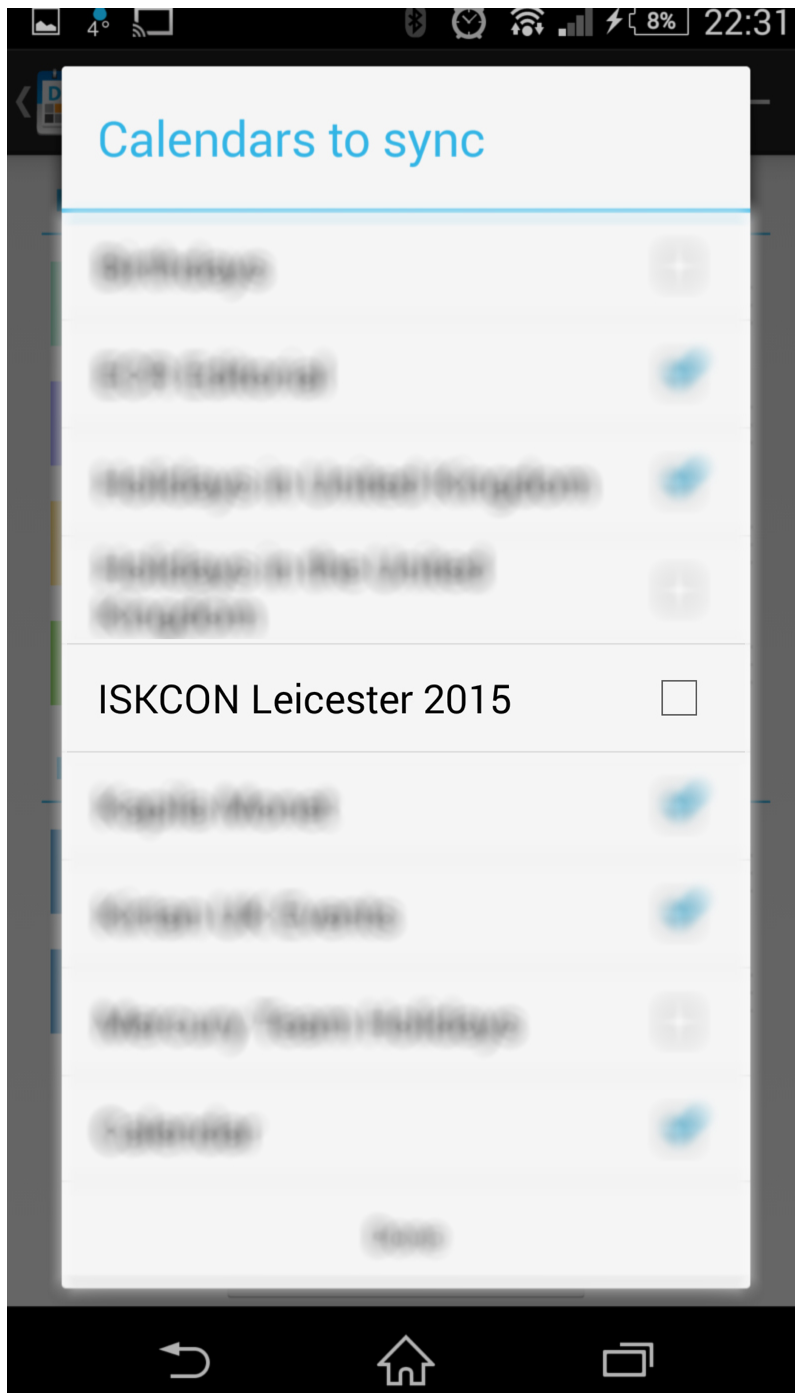

Step 2: Add iskconleicester@gmail.com in Add a friend's calendar section

The screenshot shows the same Google Calendar interface. In the 'Add a friend's calendar' input field, the email address 'iskconleicester@gmail.com' has been entered and is highlighted with a blue selection box. A red arrow points to this field.

Step 2a: ISKCON Leicester Calendar will now appear in your calendar list

This close-up screenshot shows the 'Other calendars' section. Below the 'Add a friend's calendar' input field, a new calendar entry has appeared: a green square icon followed by the text 'ISKCON Leicester 20...'. A vertical line is drawn to the right of this entry.

Step 3: Go to your calendar app on your android phone and add calendars to sync

Step 3a: Once checked, the calendar will now sync with your calendar app
